FEATURE OF THE MONTH: FORGIVEN

FORGIVEN: THE TRANSFORMING POWER OF CONFESSION, explores the grace and healing offered in Confession and shows how this sacrament of mercy reveals the depth and bounty of God's love. By looking at God's revelation of his mercy in Scripture and making a step-by-step examination of the Rite itself, FORGIVEN communicates God's invitation to each one of us to come experience his indescribable love in the Sacrament of Reconciliation

BEAUTY. PROPHECY AND GOD'S PLAN FOR THE SALVATION OF MANKIND.

On March 13 at 7:30 PM, speaker and art professional, Deanne Macewko will be presenting a talk here at Holy Family Parish, on the historic artwork of the Sistine Chapel Ceiling, created by the great Renaissance artist, Michelangelo. In this talk she will outline the prophetic program depicted on the ceiling focusing on the theological, allegorical, and symbolic meanings embedded within this great work of art. This talk is a good accompaniment to the Lenten Journey and celebration of the Easter Triduum.

A response to the New Evangelization, Deanne founded ArtTheo in December 2015. Deanne presents sacred art talks with a faith orientation, rediscovering the important role artwork has to educate, inspire and instruct, as it has done over the centuries within the Christian/Catholic tradition. She has presented talks to Catholic high schools (De La Salle, Oaklands), universities/ colleges (U of T, Tyndale College), seminaries (St. Augustine's, Toronto), and parishes

OUR MISSION: WHAT IS THE REBUILT BOOK CLUB ALL ABOUT? WEEK TWO: DO WE PUT OUR FAITH AND TRUST IN GOD?

Do you remember the story of Abraham? In Genesis 15, as he and his wife are aging, he despairs that he has no heir. God has taken Abraham out of his own country, promised him and his people a new land, and he has promised him a son. Time and again, Abraham and Sarah face struggles, challenges, and doubts about what God has asked them to do. Then the bible passage tells us that the Lord takes Abraham outside to count the stars in the sky and says that his descendants will outnumber the stars! What we do not realize until later in the story is that when he does this, it is actually during the day, and so Abraham cannot see the stars... The point is that though he cannot see them, Abraham knows they are there, and that he cannot count them all. And so, he is reminded that his trust and faith in God needs to be like this, even though he cannot see God or His plans for him, and he has been waiting a long time, his relationship with God tells him to trust in Him.

Is there something in your life that you have been waiting for? Something that you have been praying for and have not yet felt any response? In our world, in this society, in this time, we are all very used to finding instant solutions to any problems and finding ways to make difficult situations go away. Think of that pain in your back – go to the chiropractor. Think of that new couch you want but can't really afford – put it on credit. Think of the person you can't face but really want to tell them something – text or email. We find a way to ease our discomfort, to keep things comfortable and easy in our life. And at times, we put the expectation of this type of quick "consumer exchange" on our prayers to God. We ask, and expect Him to provide, now.

During the second week of our Rebuilt Book Club sessions, the participants were invited to reflect on the story of Abraham and Sarah, and how they not only needed to have faith and trust in God, but they also needed to fulfill their calling and take action to do all they could to follow His plan. We realize that sometimes we have to wait for God's response to our need, and that in the waiting there is also some purpose. It might be for us to continue our growth, or preparation for the next step, it might be that there is another path that God will show us which is actually better for us. Abraham and Sarah's story is a whole journey of faith, from having a little faith, to growing and trusting in faith. And having faith means acknowledging that we do have issues or problems in our lives, and reaching out for God's help, and then acting in faith as if God's word is true. Showing that we do believe He is with us, loves us, and He has a purpose for us and will guide us in our life.

Living in faith, and truly growing in faith can be a challenge. We may wish and pray that people in our lives would come back to the church, or reconnect with their faith, and not realize that we can play a part in that. Thinking about actually doing something can really push us out of our comfort zone. According to the mission that Jesus left his church, we are his missionaries, and it is through our example of joyfully living our faith, that we will encourage and invite others. When we consider these people, we love who are not engaged in their faith or church, we can identify many. People at the book club shared that we could be reaching out to our families, our friends, neighbours, and co-workers. They also felt that there are groups who we should be giving special attention to support them in faith: parents of children in our Catholic schools, young adults, young families, people who are separated or divorced, employees in our Catholic schools, people who have fallen away from the church and those who may even come to church sometimes, but who are indifferent.

When we consider how we might possibly be able to have any part in inviting someone else to come to church, or to engage in their faith, it may make us very uncomfortable. It may seem that we do not have the right words, or knowledge, or even the right heart to be extending that invitation. But if we are strong in our own faith, and feel its power and joy in our lives, and if we have faith and trust in God, then we can step forward to welcome others and speak from our own experience of how God has worked in our lives. Please consider the words of our Mission Prayer and keep it in your prayers as you consider what your role in God's mission for the church might be.
